Introduction to the Course

Institutional marketing is the art and science of promoting not for profit organisations with the goal of making them exciting and aspirational for their stakeholders. Helping not for profits to formulate innovative strategies for their Target Group to associate and participate in their activities with the overall objective of achieving their organisational goals & growth targets is also one of the key aspects of Institutional Marketing.

This course explores how institutions build, communicate, and sustain their brand identities. Students will learn the theory and practice of marketing in non-commercial and semi-commercial institutional settings such as universities, museums, political parties, NGOs, hospitals, and research bodies. Emphasis will be on brand positioning, stakeholder engagement, and reputation management.

The course will also discuss the not-for-profit sector, the trends, challenges and opportunities that exist in its evolution. Students will be taught key concepts through real life case studies and current application of key marketing concepts by not for profits in the real world. Special emphasis will be given to learning keeping in mind the application of the concepts learnt within the Indian context.

Course Learning Objectives

At the end of the course, students should be able to

1. CLO1-Understand what Institutional Marketing is and how it has evolved over a period, locally and globally.
2. CLO2 Understand key foundational concepts of Institutional Marketing & Not for Profit Sector.

Description of Assessments:

A1- Class Participation- You are expected to actively engage in the class with key concepts being taught by the faculty. The student is expected to do pre-read ups before the class and contribute to the classroom interactions.

A2 - Team Presentation -You are expected to carefully analyse case studies and present your findings in a power-point format. The presentation must carry a thorough problem identification, analysis, and recommendation (probable solution, and action plan).

A3 Midterm- The midterm examination will be of 20 marks of 1.5 hour's duration. This will be a pen and paper invigilated exam held on the JGU campus.

A4 End term examination- The end term examination will be of 30 marks of 1.5 hours duration. This will be invigilated exam held on the JGU campus according to the mode decided by CoE.

Teaching Method

The course will have a judicious mix of lectures, storytelling, experiential exercises, and cases. Here the onus of learning will be with the student, and the instructor will be a facilitator. Instead of learning 'what to do', the cases will also be used as examples of real-world phenomena where issues arise, and good and bad practices are seen. The key to learning this way is to see many examples and situations and learn inductive as well as deductive ways from students' and managers' different experiences.

Disability Support

JGU endeavours to make all its courses accessible to students. The Disability Support Committee (DSC) has identified conditions that could hinder a student's overall wellbeing. These include physical and mobility-related difficulties, visual impairment, hearing impairment, mental health conditions, and intellectual/learning difficulties, e.g., dyslexia and dyscalculia. Students with any known disability needing academic and other support are required to register with the Disability Support Committee (DSC) by following the procedure specified at <https://jgu.edu.in/disability-support-committee/>

Students who need support may register any time during the semester up until a month before the end semester exam begins. Those students who wish to continue receiving support from the previous semester, must re-register within the first month of a semester. Last-minute registrations and support might not be possible as sufficient time is required to make the arrangements for support.

The DSC maintains strict confidentiality about the identity of the student and the nature of their disability and the same is requested from faculty members and staff as well. The DSC takes a strong stance against in-class and out-of-class references made about a student's disability without their consent and disrespectful comments referring to a student's disability.

All general queries are to be addressed to disabilitysupportcommittee@jgu.edu.in

Disclaimer: This course outline including assessments, mode, nature and weightage of assessments, sessions, sequence of sessions and/or readings may be revised during the semester if such need arises.
