1. Course description:

In this introductory course, students will learn Spanish through a communicative approach from a Pan-Hispanic perspective. This course is planned through a practical and participatory methodology which includes monitored individual, group, and class work, whereby students will grow skills to communicate and be able to successfully interact both orally and in a written manner in Spanish in formal and informal settings of daily and university life. This introductory course includes practice and exposure to different textual genres in an interdisciplinary fashion within the A1 level according to the CEFR.

Different manuals, along with relevant applications such as Flipgrid, Clubhouse, Telegram, Kahoot, Padlet, etc. will be used in this course.

2. Learning Outcomes

- Interact in communicative settings with topics such as personality descriptions, friends and family, place of residence, etc., both in formal and informal settings.
- Develop communication strategies.
- Cultivate speaking and listening techniques.
- Hone pronunciation and intonation of the Spanish language.
- Achieve meaningful and real learning.
