3- Course Number:	MA (DLB) & UG
4- Name of Instructor:	Prof. (Dr) Abdul Fattah Ammourah

1- Course Description-

The course aims to help students who have successfully passed level 1 and /or have some background knowledge to dive deeper into Arabic grammar, comprehension, reading and social interaction.

It includes course work in and out of class, and focusses on extensive reading, writing and listening to build and further develop the students' writing skills, sound Arabic composition from a grammatical perspective base on basic syntactic structure and acquisition of extra active vocabularies of about 700 words or expressions to use them in their daily conversation and social activities.

The medium of interaction at this level is basically Arabic with some intermittent explanations in English regarding linguistic, phonetic, semantic and syntactic features of both English and Arabic, to help students easily understand this comparative approach.

This Level 2 sets out with a thorough review of what has been covered during fall Semester 2025 regarding basic grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation in order to help students who might wish to join and capture the content of Level 1. The grammatical part will concentrate on sentence structure, affirmation, negation and writing, interrogation, and sentence connectivity in written texts and conversation.

Arabic Language is a working language at the UN and its various agencies, as well as at regional and international conferences and seminars. In addition to this, many Indian expatriates are working or are planning in the Arab countries, particularly the Gulf. Hence, the importance of being able to communicate and interact easily with the community individuals makes it not only important but imperative if you are seeking any job opportunity in any Arab country.
